Bothell Baptist Female COLLEGE.

HOPKINSVILLE, KENTUCKY. THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION will commence on the last Monday (29th) of January, 1866, with the following CORPS OF INSTRUCTORS:

Rev. T. G. KEEN.

President and Professor of Belles Lettres.

Rev. M. G. ALEXANDER,

Professor of Mathemasics.

I. De La BARETTE, Professor of Ancient and Modern Painting and Drawing, Mrs. E. H. KERN, Tracker of Music, and Ancient and Modern History, Miss FANNIE KEEN, Assistant Teacher in English Branches.

Terms of Tuition per Session of 20 Weeks: Tuition in Primary Department, (including Spelling, Reading, 1st Lessons in Arith-

Music-Plano and Guita , (extra,).

Use of Instrument for purposes of Practi-Painting and Drawing, water colors, extra, 10 00 Boarding will be furnished in the College Building, by Prof. ALEXANDER, at $80 00 per Session

Washing 70 cents per dozen, extra. Candles in the Pupils entering the first month will be charged fo Tuition the entire Session. Pupils entering after the first month will be charged to the close of the Session. No deduction for absence, except in case of protracted sickness, Interest will be charged on all bills not paid when due. Prof. ALEXANDER will be Compared to all blue business confided to attend to the settlement of bills.

EXAMINATION.

There will be an examption at the close of the Session. The Examination is intended to embrace all the studies pursued during the year, and will be conducted in the presence of the Trustees, Parents. conducted in the presence of the Trustees, Parents, Guardians and the friends of the School. No
Stewart counties, Tenn., and Christian county, Ky. young lady will be excused from Examination, except on accunt of some serious Providential hind

With the sympathy and co-operation of parents and guardians, we hope to educate their daughters and wards so as to fit them for the duties and responsibilities of life. For further particulars, application may be made to President KEES, Prof. ALEXANDER, or to any o the following Trustees:

Chas, M. Tandy, R. T. Petree. S. E. Trice, J. C. Latham, H. A. Phelps, J. P. Campbell, Jr., S. A. Holland, A. Palmer. Gano Henry. E. J. Fort, HOPRISSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 26, '66.-1f

MALLORY FEMALE INSTITUTE. THIS INSTITUTE, SITUATED AT FORTS Sold at New York Prices. 60 L Station, on the Edgefie'd and Kentucky Rail road, Robertson county, Tenn, opened its First Session, on MONDAY, the 5th inst., with Miss Hieroxymus, a graduate of the Daughter's College, Harrodsburg, Ky., as Principal.

Terms .-- Per Session of Twenty Weeks: Board, including washing, Lights and Fuel, $80 0 Tuition

NO UNION CHARGES One-half in advance, the balance at the close of very attention will be given the Pupils, both in and out of school. Address MRS. DR. J. H. MALLORY.

Tait & Station P. O., Tenn.

EDUCATIONAL.

CLASSICAL, MATHEMATICAL AND ENG-A lish School for Young Ludies, will be opened. in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, in this coived at the Depot, and placed in our house for city, on MONDAY, THE FIFTH OF FEBRUARY, the same that is charged by the Clarksville ware-1866, under the care of Rev. S. P. Chesker, Prin-

Lessons will be given in Vocal and Instrumental Music by Miss Franconta Lumin. One-half of the Tuition payable in advance, For particulars, whilees

REV. S. P. CHESNUT. Jan. 19, '66-tf

BETHEL COLLEGE. THE NEXT SESSION OF THIS INSTITUTION

Monday, January 29th, 1866. For particulars address the President, J. W RUST. Jan. 12, '66,-3m3

J. F. MEHLHOPE & CO., General Stock of Groceries, DEALERS IN

Groceries, Wines and Brandies, WHISKEY, ALE, BEER, CIGARS, General Assortment of Confectioneries!

QUEENSWARE, TINWARE, PANCY NOTIONS, ETC., ETC.

TRANKLIN STREET, CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE.

IN FACT HOUSEKEEPERS CAN FIND MOST

ANYTHING DESIRED!

As we ntend keeping a

GANERAL VARIETY STORE ! FRESH OYSTERS! (Sept. 1, '65-tf

Received by Express, every day, for sale by the can or half-can, or cooked in any style desired. R. H. FRASER, (Specksson to FRASER & CO.,)

COTTON & TOBACCO FACTOR & GENERAL COMMISSION MERCHANT. NEW ORLEANS, LOUISIANA. Referring to the above Card, I solicit your shipments and can safely promise LARGER NET PROCEEDS than any Northern market Oct. 13, 65-6m*

Tannery For Sale. RECEIVING, FORWARDING

Here is a Rare Chance for a Fortune!

OFFER FOR SALE THE VALUABLE TAN-A nery property of Wm. T. Shackelford, in the city of Clarksville, Tenn., on the bank of the Camberland river, about one hundred yards from the Depot of the M., C. & L. Railroad, containing about One Acre of Land; has 43 Vats, 5 Leachers, 2 Pools, 2 Limes, 3 Bates, and a large eistern to resupply of spring and river water. Price-$4000. Terms cash,

Also, One Portable Engine for sale. T. D. LEONARD.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Of Glarksville, Tenn.

WILL DO A

General Banking

Exchange Business.

Issues no Circulation --- Incurs no Risks.

Special attention paid to collections and remittances made on day of payment. DIRECTORS:

W. P. HUME, Cashier. Nov. 10, '65-1y

C. H. JONES, INSURANCE,

One-half of the fees to be paid invariably in ad-CLARKSVILLE, TLNNESSEE.

> REPRESENTS THE BEST Companies IN THIS COUNTRY.

Will Buy, Reut, and Sell Houses, Lots, and Farms, and give prompt attention to the Collection of all Claims in Montgome-

-AND-

JEWELRY,

COOKE'S!

At the Old Stand-Public Square,

Dec. 15, '65-1y Clarksville, Tenn. WILLIAM IL TURNLEY

SMITH & TURNLEY, W. S. Courts of Tennessee. 1881, Office, on Strawberry Alley, near the Court-House. SMITH & TURNLEY.

MERCHANTS,

FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE Red River Landing, Tennessee.

WILL KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND FOR W sale, Salt, Molasses, Shingles, Plows, and a large assertment of Lumber.

1855. P. O. Adress: Box 245, Clarksville, Tenn All Tobacco Shipped us by Railroad will be re-SMITH & TURNLEY. Jan.5, '66-6m

W. M. TANDY,

Wholesale and Retail Grocer

FRANKLIN STREET.

CLARKSVILLE, TENNESSEE.

H AVING PROCURED THE WELL KNOWN Grocery stand, formerly occupied by Lewis & Glass, and known as the "House Stand," would

AT WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

We call the special attention of Merchants to our stock of Studes which we are determined to sell at such profits as will make it to their interest to give is a call before going farther North. We will give special attention to all consignats entrusted to our care. W. M. TANDY. Feb. 2, 6d-tf

L. STRAUE. STRAUS & HYMAN.

Hard Times are Past.

A LARGE STOCK OF Hardware in its Place.

And will sell our Goods as LOW AS ANY HOUSE THE UNDERSIGNED WOULD RESPECTin the city. TSept. 1, 65-if patrons, that they are now established in this city nd aveready to offer the GREATEST INDUCE-MENTS to the jobbing trade in Hardware, Pocket and Table Catlery, Mechanical Tools, of very description, Farming Utensils, Machinery, etc., etc. in this city or Cincinnati.

> warranted to give satisfaction STRAUS & HYMAN, No. 135 West Main-st., bet. Fourth and Bullitt-st Louisville, Ky.

HARRISON & SHELBY,

Commission Merchants, AND STEAMBOAT AGENTS,

FIRE-PROOF WAREHOUSE. CLAKESVILLE, TENN.

ceive the liquor; main building dux80 feet, with Robit Moore & Co., Gincinnati, O.; R. M. Bishop shed room sufficient to hold 100 cords barks; good & Co., Cincinnati, O.; Moorehead & Co., Lenisville Ky.; H. C. Caruth, Louisville, Ky.; Andy Hamilton, Nashville, Tenn.; Newton, Ford & Co., Memphis. Tenn.; Givins, Watts & Co., New Orleans, ba.; Watts, Givins & Co., Padacalı, Ky.; Ander-son & Watson, St. Louis, Mo.; Alex. Wilson, Na-tional Book, Evansville, Ind. Dec. 1, 65-6m.

The Chronicle.

NEBLETT & GRANT,

R. W. THOMAS, EDITOR.

Terms--Three Dollars per year. IN ADVANCE.

Business Cards.

R. W. HUMPHREYS, Attorney at Law.

CLARKSVILLE, TENN. Office, on Public Square, UP STAIRS, under "Chromole" office. Oct. 6, 65-4f WM. M. DANIEL,

ATTORNEY AT LAW,

CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

OFFICE, on Strawberry Alley, near the Court-house

Sep 29, '65-tf A. A. DOAK, ATTORNEY AT LAW. WILL practice in the Law and Equity Courts of Montgomery and adjoining counties. Nov. 17, '65-1y LAW NOTICE.

Will attend to all law business confided to them in the 7th Judicial District and the Supreme Court at Nashville, Tenn. Office on Public Square, Clarksville, Tenn.

Sept. 1, '65,-tf QUARLES & RICE, Attorneys at Law,

nen. Office under the "Chronicle" office.

Nov. 10, 1865-6m

HAVING served as officers in the U.S. Army. will have facilities to prosecute successfully all le-girimate claims against the Government. Clarksville, Tenn., Aug. 4, 1865-

ARTHUR A. SMITH. SMITH & PEFFER, TTORNEYS AND COUNSELLORS AT LAW, SOLICITORS IN CHANCERY, Claim and Bounty Agents, Clarksville, Tenn.

WILL PRACTICE IN THE STATE AND U.

NATIONAL HOTEL

T. D. SCOTT, Proprietor.

G. REXINGER, WHOLESALE GROCER

AND DEALER IN Cigars and Tobacco.

ORNER PUBLIC SQUARE AND STRAWBERRY ALLEY, CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

Bey Cash paid for all kinds of country produce

DR. H. M. ACREE, Surgeon Dentist

PROFESSIONAE NOTICE. T. B. BILLING SLEY

E. Church, Clarksville, Tenn. [Jan 5-tf] BELL & SHERIDAN, PHOTOGRAPHERS

AMBROTYPISTS, Opposite the Market House, Franklin-st., CLARKSVILLE, TENN.

MERCHANT,

C. H. SMITH & CO., Commission Merchants NO 59 CARONDELET STREET.

Can Be Found At Our Ware-House ! FOR SALE, HAY, SEED OATS, P draulic Cement, Pine and Poplar Flooring, dressed Paunel Doors, Blinds, Sash, Poplar Shingles, Flour Barrels Tobacco Hogsbeads, &c. HARRISON & SHELBY. Feb 9, '66-3m

VACCINE VIRUS!

VACCINE VIRUS-WARRANTED PURE-

FINLEY & STEWART.

can be obtained at the

Written for the Chronicle.] MOONLIGHT ON A COFFIN. IN MEMORY OF LITTLE JESSIE SUMMERS

Softly through the uncurtain'd window, In that room with ceiling low, Fell the clearest, purest moonlight, Falling with a silvery glow,

BY BLLIEMAE.

Right across the breast it fell, Silver queen's last, fond, farewell, "Out of the sod," to the child reposing Neath the lid, with the shadow closing, Over it as none can tell?

Only a little child dead! It awakens no fear or dread, To sit there and watch the moon gleaning, in broad bands of silver-light streaming, Could it but warm the heart instead Ab! cold, cold, the sweet child's breast! She's entered now the deep rest.

The soul has mounted, leaving the sod, The body, giving him the best! Little Jessie, dead so soon, Lying under the brilliant moon, Leaving little friends thy death to muse o'er, And the thought, they'll see thee here no more, Thou'rt walking the shores pearl-strewn!

To earthly eyes, but up where reigns our God,

Moonlight on the coffin-lid, Dost thou know what is hid Beneath? A child's sweet, young, earthly face; Only peace, and a smile on it we trace! Soul's up there! angels amid! JOY BLUFF, TEXN., Oct., 1865.

[Written for the Chronicle.]

As there are but few persons here of the present

all drank, some little, others much, and sur or three on one horse.

The public square was the place to meet with everybody. In the forenoon they extended to each summoned, nor called, he did not consider it his summoned, nor called, he did not consider it his summoned, nor called, he did not consider it his summoned. other the friendly grasp of hands; enquiring after cach other's health, of their families and friends, but more especially drinking whisky and swapping horses. The jargon of sounds became almost the prisoner and in the defense.—

duty to volunteer in 'making himself generally useful' on this occasion. The prisoner feeling for h protests in such number from both friends and foes of the measure, that the leaders of the hall in motion, appealed for aid in the defense.—

Novel Discoveries—Buried (lities at the Bottom of the Swiss Lakes.

A late Paris paper contains the following:

The peasants who dwell on the shores of the lake deafening, especially at the "groceries"—tipling houses. In the afternoon the effects of whisky ciforously called for by the crowd, the excitement the bill should be called on the morrow, it should be open for unlimited discussion and amendment. became visible in the confusion of tongues, and was great. The counsel for defendant appeared On Friday morning the bill was again called, Mr. Foreign and Bomestic Wines and Liquors, this was the preclude to, and portentous of a free and in his immitable strain of forensic eloquence, Steele, of Marshall, permitted to make an arguhave been seen two individuals in a dilapidated aforethought, and that he had fought only in self three-quarters of an hour in opposition to the bill, the portion of the lake bed left here, by construct. CITY AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS WILL condition, each holding on to a post respectively, inherent principle in the human breast, it was to examine my stock and prices before purchasing.

CITY AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS WILL condition, each holding on to a post respectively, inherent principle in the human breast, it was to be examine my stock and prices before purchasing.

CITY AND COUNTRY MERCHANTS WILL condition, each holding on to a post respectively, inherent principle in the human breast, it was to be expected that every gentleman would exercise their held himself bound by the pledges of no man, or respectively. fruitless efforts to exercise their belligerent pro- be expected that every genileman would exercise leader or otherwise, called for the "previous quespensities, the the posts were not more than ten it, and therefore justifiable in the civil law. At tion, thus again shutting off discussion or amendfeet apart, and they well knew that if they let go the complusion the court announced that he shought ment. In this call for the previous question he their equilibrium would be lost. Finally, one of the party made a desperate charge at the breastworks of his neighbor. This was the electric termination of the whole scene, a deafening shout pledged themselves to an open and free discussion TENDERS his services to the citizens of the city and vicinity, in the different branches of his profession.

The Conservative minority, finding themselves to the citizens of the city spark which ignited a free fight on a stupendous spark which ignited a free fight on the fight of the measure. The Conservative minority, fighting t wards the scene of action. Mechanics left their work; clerks and storekeepers jumped over their therefore the court did not know itself on that numbers sufficient to reduce the House below a couxters; teamsters left their teams and followed occasion. Thus ended the last "free fight in quorum, and thus defeat the passage of the bill.— Malays in Borneo and the Siamese at Bangkok may suit. The fearful exciment drew every one from Clarksville." every quarter of the town. Snatching up sticks, brickbats, and every other available missile, and "pitched in." The battle waxed hot and spread On Monday the 5th inst., in the House, Mr. Bingwith such unanimity of sentiment that It seemed as the blank from the Joint Committee on Reconstruction, as the strangle debate on a conferred the following joint resolution:

Important questions, was thus prostructed to make the back which formed the walls.—

Arms have been discovered in great quantities, tools from saws in flint to needles in book from saws in flint to need to be not need than any other in the crowd. E. B. R.—e. He was a respeciable citizen of Clarkeville, past middle age, of large roundity and portly mein, neat in dress, with rufles largely protruding from his breast, and armed with a heavy black cane. Thus, he voluntarily left his place of business, and sallied forth to mingle in the fray. His whereabouts in PRESLEY A. BYRNE,

The last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree, to every rightly-thinking mind:

The urus, the last degree of the like a sledge hammer upon the luckless pates of Tennessee are found to be in a condition to exer-AND STEAMBOAT AGENT, those who happened to be under it. The fight accumulated in fury, and in numbers from reinforces ments momentarily arriving at the scene of action.

CLARKSVILLE,TENNESSEE.

July 14-4f

AGENT, those who happened to be under it. The fight accumulated in fury, and in numbers from reinforces in growing at the scene of action. State of Tennessee is declared to be one of the United States; instead of eight, as now.

2. It gives, or will give, under the proposed to vision and apportionment of the Congressional representation, to the State of Tennessee, one Representation to the United States; instead of eight, as now.

3. It gives to the Governor of the State, through the control of the Congressional representation to the State of Tennessee is declared to be one of the State of Tennessee is declared to be one of the State of the United States, and on an equal footing with the color of the State of the United States, and on an equal footing with the color of the State of the United States, and on an equal footing with the color of the State of the United States, and on an equal footing with the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the United States, and on an equal footing the color of the Un itself might have blushed in contradistinction to the roar of battle. John Barleycorn who raised that the people of Tennessee will maintain and on that the people of Tennessee will maintain and on the should power of deciding, and this without appeal who shall be voters in the State. the whirfwind did not neglect to direct the storm. laws, excluding those who have been engaged in Merchants,

His voice was heard above the confusion, and clashing of sticks and brickbats, like anto a serpent of a thousand tongues. There were engaged in NEW ORLEANS.

His voice was heard above the confusion, and clashing of sticks and brickbats, like anto a serpent of a thousand tongues. There were engaged in the respective particles of the electric franchise for the respective particles of the electric franchise from the exercise franchise from the exercise particles of the electric franchise from the exercise particles and blook and a land obnoxious features, we leave it to an intelligent obnoxious features, we leave it to an intelligent obnoxious features, we leave it to an intelligent obnoxious features, and the obnoxious features, and th stables, &c., everybody, each fully conacious that State of Tennessee shall never assume nor pay any he was engaged in the landable cause of self-dethe fare control in and of the fare control in the fare c fence, for each man's hand was compelled to be any manner, claim from the United States, or make of the people of the State, convened by regular conagainst every other man, at every other man's any allowance or compensation for slaves emand. stitutional prevision.

all front. The mighty mass of bone and muscle ously as the fight had begun, as if by the tacit consent of every individual who had been engaged. A spectacle now presented itself which to describe, will not do justice to the .reality. Altho' with laughter, others who went in to the fight with selves, and be read with interest : long tailed coats, came out with roundabout. In order that those whom we have immediately day of the Convention. jackets, and without hats. It may appear singular, that among the debris on the battle ground, there were no googed eyes found no tars of many appears and there were no googed eyes found no tars of many appears and there were no googed eyes found no tars of many appears and the order that these woom we have immediately in conclusion, we-beg only to add that, during the entire session of the Legislature, no political of Tennessee, may understand precisely the status be had been miraculously preserved, yet his corpulency breathed like a blacksmith's bellowed. His ruddy face sweat profusely. I asked him, "What business had you in the fight?" "Oh," he its provisions than the present franchise law, which we should have been pleased to visit the noble replied, with a laugh, "I always take a hand in it, all others, and was lying on the table of the House lightful exercises of the pulpit and the altar, but it when I see it going on." In the meantime, one of the worshipful magistrates had quietly taken of the worshipful magistrates had quietly taken on the 15th of February the Franchise bill rehis seat on the tribunal of justice, in the courthouse close at hand. He issued his mandate to arthemse close at hand. He issued his mandate to arthemse close at hand. He issued his mandate to arrest his fellow-citizens, and vindicate the majesty of a violated law. One of the constables arose in the crowd, and proclaimed in a stentorian voice:

then, for the first time, the representative from towns in Addice Tennessee settled soon arrest the present of a violated law. One of the constables arose in the crowd, and proclaimed in a stentorian voice:

This bill is more stringent far in its provisions munity which will favorably compare with any the fanchise law now in force, apulls all the of the towns or cities in the South-west. In the crowd, and proclaimed in a stentorian voice:

"Oh, yes! Oh, yes! gentlemen, all of you, walk into the court-house before Squire Blant." Their dieg from the right of registration and of suffrage fidelity. The consequence was, that Christianity generation who have witnessed the excitement, or into the court-house before Squire Blunt. Their dieg from the right of registration and of suffrage fidelity. modus operandi, of a free fight, or even comprehend the meaning of the expression, I beg leave to give a reminiscence of one to which I was an eyewitness from beginning to end, and can never be Nov. 10, 1805-6m⁸

J. JAY BUCK,
Late Judge Adv.
Dist. Mid. Tenn.

BUCK & McMULLEN,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW. and REAL ESTATE
AND CLAIM AGENTS,
Will practice in the State and Federal Courts.

Witness from beginning to end, and can never be erased from memory.

In the early settlement of the country, there the fold. But they were conscious that they were conscious that they were be erased from memory.

In the early settlement of the country, there the fold. But they were conscious that they were be erased from memory.

In the early settlement of the country, there the fold. But they were conscious that they were the fold. But they were conscious that they were the fold. But they were conscious that they were the fold. But they were conscious that they were the fold. But they were conscious that they were the fold. But thinly populated country, their greatest ambition and pleasure was to meet each other in crowds, on public occasions. Militia musters, the first day of country, and the election, were familiar phrazes, and deeply impressed on the mind of every man in the being also defined at such as the early of country. Their arrival was halled with an exhuster of joy—almost every body attended them, whether on business or not, and Clarksville was squads and companies, on the ground of justifiable of course, the centre of attraction; not only to the citizens of Montgomery, but to the country and the action of the State, an editorial from which we call the following extraordinary significant paragraph:

"If the people ever did plant hemselves firmly of worshipers has increased to hundreds and the crowd of worshipers has increased to hundreds and the crowd of worshipers has increased to hundreds and the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the class to hundreds and thouse of worshipers has increased to hundreds and thouse of worshipers has increased to hundreds and thouse in the claim, and that majority instructed findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be passed in the findly, in substance, that the bill must be citizens of Montgomery, but to the counties adja-cent. Thither they repaired in great numbers at stated periods. Drinking whisky was so universal in those days, that every family kept it on hand, not only for their own use, but to be prepared to not only for their own use, but to be prepared to and was not very auxious to run any risk. Just our sacred honor on board of that ship." not only for their own use, but to be prepared to and was not very anxious to run any risk. Just our sacred honor on board of that ship.

set it out to regale their friends and visitors, and as his name had been called, the belt at the hotel not to do so, was considered selfish and unfriendly.

Hence all drank, some little, others much, and summons, and adjourned until candle light. Court s, and adjourned until candle light. Court ward for the grass. At the stated periods alluded to, immense crowds gathered together at the county seat, all came on horseback, and frequently two many to excess; but a man was never considered met accordingly. The court-house jammed with the bill printed for the information of the members. ty seat, all came on horseback, and frequently two paying the penalty for all that had taken place, for of the committee bill, instantly put upon its second ight.

rivited the attention of the court and crowd. He ment in opposition to the bill of an hour and a phenomenon till about eight years since. At the ment in opposition to the bill of an hour and a phenomenon till about eight years since. At the end of 1856, the waters of the lake of ZuriAt the half's duration, and Mr. Elliot, of Rutherford, the considerably, and the thrifty proprietors of land on the court and crowd. He half's duration, and Mr. Elliot, of Rutherford, the considerably, and the thrifty proprietors of land on the court and crowd. He half's duration, and Mr. Elliot, of Rutherford, the considerably, and the thrifty proprietors of land on the court and crowd. election under the new constitution, -there might dant had been fighting, but it was without malice particular bill, to follow in an argument of half or hand was against him, for there were no sides to be taken, as each one fought con his own book;"

CONGRESSIONAL.

The extreme haste with which the measure was conditions shall be ratified by the Legislature of attempted to be passed into a law, was not without at last the fight had spent its fury, physical strength 1 r," was Pat's reply were no gauged eyes found, no ters or noses bitten off, and no fingers "chawed up," for these accomplishments did not belong to, nor were they resorted to in a "free fight." Scarcely had there been time to make a survey of the battle ground, there are the people of Tennessee, in any nuderstand precisely the status of affirs in that body, and the reasons that impelland none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority for action. Always in their addition to the matters set forth in the "address to places, and intent only upon measures of necessary the people of Tennessee, in any nuderstand precisely the status of affirs in that body, and the reasons that impelland none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority for action. Always in their addition to the matters set forth in the "address to places, and intent only upon measures of necessary the people of Tennessee, in any nuderstand precisely the status of affirs in that body, and the reasons that impelland none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority and none offered by the majority, and none offered by the majority and none offered by the majority. when a squad made a rush at a teamster, who was a various disfranchising bills had been introduced into the House of Representatives, of character and tenor widely diverse, some of exceeding stringency, and some of provisious more liberal and just. One introduced by the venerable and lightly trace chains accelerated his speed to such a degree, that he soon left his passuers far in the rear.—

Whether he ever returned for his wagon and team
Whether he ever returned for his wagon and team its darkest hours, and a member of the present Legislature of Tennessee, based upon the provis-I met my old friend of the ruffle shirt coming out of the crowd, very much dilapidated in his wardrobe, but otherwise apparently unhurt, as the had been miraculously preserved, yet his corbe had been miraculously preserved.

one in Middle and West Tennessee combined, who shall be voters in the State. Without specifying other unconstitutional and gia Railroad were blown off, and some thirty or mission, in view of the fact that the bill, if passed, would be claimed as constitutional in its character, be taken, as each one fought "on his own book;" conditions shall be ratined by the Lagislature as univergated to the most casual abserver. The sand, as a consequence, there was no rear, it was may direct, before this set shall take effect.

became exhausted, a calm took place as simultane. A FULL EXPOSITION OF DIFFICULTIES strength and influence if when convened in the capously as the fight had begun, as if by the tacit confing to which they had come to renew their allegi-A Truthful and Clear Statement by Mr. ance, they could be told that they were power-less for all purposes, save to pay taxes for the support of the Government, and to yield obedience to there were none killed, yet many were hurt, some with disbelvelled hair and distorted countenances, and marks of W. K. Poston, to his constituents, after his return to Memphis. They will explain them its two readings in the House and three in the Senate, would elapse before the 22d of February, the and persecution, colminating in this bill, revolu-tionary in its character, and subversive alike of the character and peace of the government. Finally, they were compelled, as a last resort, to save the liberties of the people, imperiled by measures like these, to resign their seats and return to the people the trust committed to their charge.

CLARKSVILLE.

The peasants who dwell on the shores of the lake through the water, emerging from the mud of the bed. No interest was, however, attached to the permanent dykes against the return of the While these works were being carried on, a row or rather a system, of stakes was discovered at lived in buts constructed on stakes which rested on The "previous question," a feature of parliamentary proceeding instituted in the British Parliament, for excluding discussion upon questions of deliency races have been brought to light. In some places articles pertaining to the daily life of the forgotten in use in this country to ent off wrangling upon important questions, was thus prostituted to hase 2. It gives, or will give, under the proposed re> ginia Railroad and of the round house of the Geormore houses were blown down. A large amount > her "Com till Americy, Pat," writes a son of and the man at the top does all the work.

The Washington specials say the report of the people of Tennetsee and been called to convene in Internal Revenue Commissioners on distilled spir-Nashville, on the 27d of February, to consult, as in its it now ready. They recommend a decrease of swayed to and fro, and whirled like unto a forest in a storm. Brickbats, stones, &c., flew thick and fast, and fell far beyond the scene of action, until master taking about? Only a drop of the cras- in Washington, upon the interests of the country minished by a restriction of daty to $1.